Savoie
Mont-Blanc

“The mountain with the feet on the water”

In the heart of the Savoy, at the entrance to the regional natural park of Les Bauges, and nearby the Beaufort and the Mont-Blanc Massif, the “Lac de Carouge” (9 ha 22 acres) is an ideal spot for lovers of bathing, walking and fishing. Lying in the valley of St Pierre d’Albigny at the altitude of 950 feet on the sunny side of “Combe de savoie”, this spot has fantastic views of the neighbouring mountain ranges. A wine-producing region, This part of Savoy is steeped in culture and history.

Discover the Savoie

It is in this environment of nature that you and your family will rest for your holidays. The camping is an ideal spot for fishermen and bathers. Hiking, outdoor sports, excursions in the Alps, you can choose to explore at your leisure the natural resources that have forged the reputation of our Region. As you come back from your day trip, you will be able to stop in one of our nice wine producer to taste the wonderful wine of Savoy.
